Ciao Felipe

The members of our website thescuderia.net would like to wish you a very speedy recovery.

We thought of ways to show our support for you and we decided to send you this book in the hope that it gives you some pleasure while you recuperate and also for when you are back racing with Ferrari. We received many donations towards the book and all the extra money raised has been donated to charities that we are sure you would support.

We thoroughly enjoy your career with Ferrari, from the many high points we celebrated with you to the few low points that we felt for you. The passion you give back to the fans makes you a firm favourite with the tifosi worldwide. You are one of us, driving one of our cars, living the dream so many of us have and we feel part of it. Every step of the way we are behind you, willing you to become the Champion that you are and will be for Ferrari.

Felipe, you have given us so much pride. You have become a role model for many and you are a shining light for Ferrari. Don't ever stop giving us your passion.

Forza Felipe

Ciao Felipe

As I write this message it appears you are making a speedy recovery and I hope that it is not too long until we see you back racing for Ferrari very soon. In the time you have been with Ferrari you have given me so much pleasure. From a promising start beside Michael to really taking it to another level with Kimi. In 2007 I thought you were very unfortunate not to be in the title hunt come the end of the season, and the way you gave up the home GP win to assist Kimi in his title quest really did take a lot of team spirit, something we tifosi don't forget or take for granted.

2008 was such a roller coaster of a season, a season that saw you come of age so to speak at Ferrari and cement your position as no.1. The feelings I had during that final race in Brazil will be hard to be beaten, from the pride in your drive to win, the feeling of sheer elation as it appeared you were the rightful champion, to the tears I cried when it became clear your title had been taken from you in that final lap. So much emotions just in one race which sums up your Ferrari career so far for me, passion in every race.

From Greig

Felipe, Hope this book makes you smile :o)
Best Wishes for a speedy recovery

Ciao Felipe!

I'm sure you've had enough people relaying what they felt after your accident, so I won't go into detail about how I felt. My main wish is that you recover fully, racing is not a priority right now, you are.

You've certainly got a good deal on your race engineer! You two make a great team. For sure "Felipe Baby" goes down as one of your season highlights!

It's great to hear of all the support you have had since Hungary Qualifying, not only from your family, but from the team and also your fans. It seems people will go out of their way to show how much they support you.

After we set up a get well fund for you at thescuderia.net, I was surprised at how many people donated. Hopefully you will also have received the Brazil shirt we had made for you, the rest we donated to your main charity as I'm sure you'll have heard.

Say Hi to Rob for me, and Lucy too. She has been fantastic in providing us with information on your condition (well, as much as she could say). I think they are two of the most genuine people you could meet - and I've not even met them.

My dream is to work for Ferrari, in whatever way I can, so maybe I will see you there some day!

I wish you all the best in your recovery and for the future, maybe I'll even see you in Monza if your there no watch! Get well soon.

Ciao Felipe, Siamo con te.

Felipe,

Keep fighting like you always do and get well soon.
Us Tifosi are willing you to get back into the car as soon as possible because no-one else has the spirit and passion that you do.

Love Suzie x

Dear Felipe,

I have followed your career in F1 since the days of Sauber. I have seen you progress, getting better and better at every race. Last year you showed us what a true fighter you are and how you endured and never gave up till the very last lap. This year we, as your fans ask of you to show us once again how much heart you have by fighting to recover back. We love you immensely as a Ferrari driver but most of all as Felipe Massa himself. You are always THE champion for us.

Wishing you a speedy recovery.

Jonathan Fenech,

Felipe,

Thank you for all the many special memories that you have provided us over the past few years.

The passion that you displayed on the podium in Brazil in 2008 makes me proud to be your supporter.

I wish you a speedy return to full health and I can't wait to see you back behind the wheel of a Scuderia Ferrari race car.

Dear Felipe,

I've followed your career when you started at Ferrari and I must say I've admired your hardwork and your dedication to F1 and Ferrari. Each year you've always strived to better yourself inspite of the odds and the critisms. You've kept your head down and worked your way throughout all the adversities in your life.

'08 saw the Felipe as a human who inspite of losing the WDC won his home gran prix and yet looked at defeat straight in the eye and vowed to fight on.

I really admired your courage and humility that day. I know after this trial of your you'll always come back stronger than ever and as your fans we will wait for you and cheer you on.

Get well soon!

Criss Buenviaje

Thanks for being such an inspiration. We hope to see you back on the grid very soon!

On behalf of all Saudi Arabian F1 fans here, we wish you a fast recovery and wish to see you as soon as possible driving the car of our beloved team.

Get well and we'll see you at a grand prix in no time

AzroQ

Ciao Felipe,

It was really worrying to see that horrendous accident during the Hungarian Grand Prix Qualifying. When the television replays showed the accident, I couldn't believe my eyes. The whole race weekend after that has been really odd. But I was glad to hear all the reports that you are out of danger, and that you're improving dramatically well.

All of us Tifosi really had a hard few days since that accident.
We really feel for you, and we really miss you on the track, and we cannot wait for you to get back behind the wheel of that red Ferrari. But before that, we all want you to recover fully. You've shown a real fighting spirit over the last few days, and I am sure that you will be back in Formula One stronger and better than you ever have been!

Us Tifosi have always seen you not just as a very passionate racing driver, but as a true Ferrari legend. We have been through all the highs and lows of your career together, and I am sure that in the near future you will give us lots more opportunities to celebrate by winning lots of Championships. Get well soon Felipe, and once you are fully fit, the 2010 Drivers' World Championship is all yours!

I am sure you will agree that you and all of us Tifosi have one thing in common - the blood running in our veins is Ferrari Red. We will get through this difficult time together, and we all look forward to some great times ahead.

You are always in our hearts and minds.

Forza Felipe, siamo con te. Shah S Afzal, London, United Kingdom.

Best Wishes

Felipe

I was so glad to see you come out of hospital and begin your recovery back at home.
 You have proved that you are not only fast in the red car but also you are making a fast recovery.
 Try to be patient and give your body time to heal. I cannot wait to see you drive out of the Ferrari garage onto the circuit again but only when you are ready.
 2010 is another season and hopefully you will have a championship winning car.
 Love and best wishes for a speedy recovery.

Sheila

Hi Felipe,

Just a quick message to say get well soon.

You have achieved so much in F1 and I have no doubt you will be back to carry on winning for Ferrari.

Stay strong. Your attitude and fighting spirit is an inspiration.

To our 'sunshine' Felipe, sending you lots of positive thoughts and warm wishes for a speedy recovery. Can't wait to see you back in your 'little' red car! You cannot imagine how proud we all are to support you and how many people are thinking of you and your family right now, we are all willing your back to full health and fitness.

This is me at Silverstone this year leaving you a good luck present on the Ferrari truck, my lucky top. Whenever I wore this top in 2008 you always won races, so naturally I thought you might need it more than me this season!

As you can tell from the handwriting I enjoyed your performance that day a little bit too much with a few beers....

I do sometimes wonder if you ever received my lucky top or if in fact there is some 'lucky' Ferrari truckie wandering around wearing it secretly on race weekends.

Sending you lots of hugs and best wishes, Clair Bussandri

Ciao Felipe
 Wish you fast fast recovery. You

A Poem for Felipe & Rob

Felipe & Rob, you do a great job
you make the tifosi so proud,
your commitment and passion is never short rationed - there's always enough to go round!

Your fans they are with you at every race cheering you on as you go,
when you win we're elated,
if not (though deflated), we're still right behind you y'know!

Whether starting on pole or a bit further back on race day we all watch with fervour, as the 5 lights go out
you can hear us all shout - we are always excited and nervous!

There's one we recall, it was Hungary '08
when you started behind both the Maccas, after 5 lights went out came a VERY loud shout - as Felipe set off like the clappers!

Although Lewis had told us he'd never be passed by a rival around the outside we're so glad to say you weren't listening that day and by turn 2 you'd proved he had lied!

As we know in the end it was never to be and a con-rad would steal your first place, your fans though that day
we're so proud of the way you had fought and then lost with such grace.

Which puts us in mind of São Paulo last year when you drove in a class of your own,
you did all you could do the tifosi all knew - you were worthy that day of the crown!

Yes your Championship charge was a strong one and you came oh so close yet so far, well in all but in fate
you were Champion '08 - the Scuderia's bright shining star!

Rob Smedley's the bloke you rely on to tell you what's what in the car, and when you're alarmed
he'll make sure you are calmed, as your race engineer he's a star!

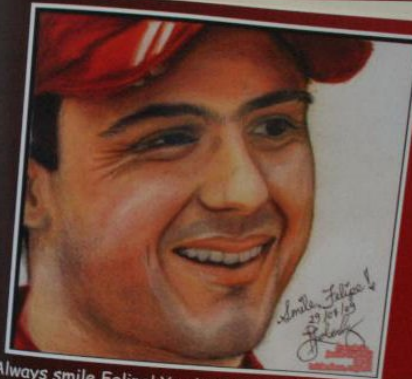

As fans we all know that there is a strong bond between driver and race engineer, it's as obvious to state as "wheels must be on straight" or "the fuel hose is off? Good - All Clear!"

So Felipe - we know that Rob's special the best engineer of all surely maybe
'cause he calls you "his mate"
and if you ever have to wait (for a visor) on occasion..... "Felipe baby!"

But seriously since this first happened
there's one thing we want you to know, that we're thinking of you and we want you back soon, our favourite dynamic duo.

So remember we'll always support you through the good and the bad - dry or wet,

To Felipe & Rob
you do a FANTASTIC Job and "FORZA" from The Scuderia.net

Always smile Felipe! You have constantly been very inspiring for a young fan like myself so I would like to take this opportunity to say thank you so much! I'm praying that you'll be 101% fit again because I cannot wait for you to drive again! Forza Felipe! We love you!

Wishing you all the best for the future and God Bless,
Janine Dela Cruz, Aged 15, Twickenham, England.
